概況

One of the units under the direct control of Roy of C.I.S.U.

In early 2089? Captain Sana and Captain Jose, members of the O.C.U. Military Special Forces, began field research on the organization behind the Vampires as part of their regular military duties. Hiding their military status and posing as mercenaries, they were engaged in information gathering activities regarding the Puppet Soldier Plan on the island of Huffman.

In the summer of 2089, the squadron had frequent encounters with the vampires' Bahamut, and during their third engagement, Sana was abducted and Jose was mortally wounded, leaving the front line. Shortly afterwards, the base to which he belonged was destroyed in an attack and airstrike by the Vampires, and the unit lost its stronghold.

Tornado, Mist, Napalm, and others borrowed the hangar facility of Rykov, with whom they had a relationship as Vanzer engineers, and searched for Sana's whereabouts as an independent unit. With the help of their collaborators, they succeeded in locating the base.

Upon returning to the scene, Jose led Adjutant Hinata to join the unit and protect Sana at the Vampires' facility. They failed and conquered the Vampires' base, but the facility was blown up by Driscoll and anything that could serve as evidence of the Vampires' activities was destroyed by fire.

According to Roy's story in BoM, the sequence of events is "Destruction of base, abduction of Sana, appointment of Captain Tornado, dispatch of guards from vampires' research facility in Vainqueur, mission to suppress B Organization," but in 2089-II, the sequence is "Destruction, abduction, After that, Tornado became the commander of the Vampires Sweep Squad and continued to pursue the operation as an independent unit without a name, rescue of Sana, collapse of Vampires, and escaped vampires and B organization research activities. Regarding the description of disbandment, the ending of 2089-II states that "the Chariot Corps was disbanded (after that day)," but Tornado and Napalm, calling themselves "Chariot 1," appear in BoM/Mission 46 after the B organization investigation begins. In other words, it has not been

1. The Chariot Corps was disbanded but was soon revived or survived without being disbanded.
2. Tornado's arrival as captain came after the collapse of the Vampires. Sana retired from his post.
3. From their home country, guards Jose and Hinata rushed to cover the match vs. the Vampires.
